DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 78-122 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: Regarding claims 78-80, 82 and 121-122, It is not structurally clear how the “flashlight component” relates to the LED, flashlight and power source, it is clearly defined in the specifications to what is meant by the term “flashlight component”.

Claims 81, 83-120 are rejected because of its dependency upon claim 78.

As best understood regarding claims 1-123 the following rejection is given.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2875

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 78-79 and 83-91, 93 and 94-103 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lennon et al (US 5,210,525).

Regarding claims 78, 79 and 83-91, Lennon et al ('525) discloses a flashlight comprising of a power supply 43, a LED 23 located at a distal portion of a housing 11, the LED having a first lead, second lead, an electrically conductive member 21 providing a moveable first position and second.

Regarding claims 94-102, figure 2 shows how the power supply 43 is located at one end of the housing and the LED located at a distal end with a portion of the LED outside the housing (figure 2).

Regarding claims 93 and 103, Lennon et al teaches in column 2, lines 22-50 of the housing having a translucent plastic material, the housing in figure 1 being substantially flat and having a key ring 33.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 80, 82, and 92 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lennon et al.

Regarding claims 80, 82 and 92 Lennon et al discloses all the limitation of the claimed invention except for the housing being made of metal or having different colors.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the housing made of metal and having different colors, since it has be held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design preference. In re Leshin*, 125 USPQ 416.

Claims 114-122 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lennon et al ('525)

Regarding claims 114-122 disclose all the limitations of the claimed invention as cited in claims 78 and 79 above, but does not disclose the flashlight having a first member and second member.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a first and second member, since it has been held that constructing a formerly integral structure in various elements involves only routine in the art. Nerwin v. Erlichman, 168 USPQ 177, 179.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 104-113 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Nowhere in the prior art is found a housing having a key ring of the flashlight having a key ring that is integral to the housing.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed June 15, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Amended claims 78-80, 82 and 121-121 has amended tht claims to include the term "flashlight component" which is neither defined in the specifications or give a clear structural limitations of how it relates to the LED, battery and housing of the claimed invention.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
